LONG HEAT WAVE RECORD-BREAKER

Temperature as High as 94 in Chicago and Reached 96 in the South.

SITUATION IS NOW IMPROVING

East Enjoyed Respite from Extreme Heat Yesterday, But Another Hot Wave is Due—Six Deaths in Chicago.

Washington, May 26.—Seasonable records were broken today by a hot wave that extended through the Middle West, the interior East and the South, while people at Sheridan, Wyoming, shivered in a snow storm. The Weather Bureau's summing up tonight of conditions the country over, showed that up through the Mississippi Valley temperatures ran from 90 to a little better than 94 in Chicago and 96 was common in the South.

The sweltering situation in the big area that includes Chicago, St. Louis and other middle west cities, is expected to be upset immediately by showers with a cooler wave in its wake. Up in South Dakota, the official record ran to 92 when it dropped rapidly as the result of a thunderstorm. The East today enjoyed a respite from extreme heat, but a hot wave that may swing the temperatures again into the 90 mark is chedduled for tomorrow or Sunday.

Six Deaths from Heat.

Chicago May 26.—The second day of sweltering weather, with the thermometer equalling its May record of yesterday—94.2 degrees—caused six deaths and scores of prostrations today. The suffering was more intense than yesterday because the breeze was not so strong. U. S. weather forecasters tonight said that the unusual heat probably would continue for some time.

Many families made preparations to spend most of the night in the open air, and as darkness came on, the parks and the lake shore were crowded.

In the tenement quarters the suffering was intense. Thousands of pounds of ice was distributed by the city and county and by relief associations. In spite of this the police patrols and ambulances of the westside were kept busy taking prostrated persons to hospitals.

Severe at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 26.—This was the hottest May day locally since the establishment of the Weather Bureau, the government thermometer registering 94 degrees, while the mercury in government kiosk at street level touched 99 degrees.

One death and seven prostrations, due to heat, were reported. All public schools were closed at noon.

Hot Day at Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., May 26.—All records for high temperatures for May 26th for 36 years past, were broken here today when the thermometer registered 94 degrees at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The previous high record for that date was in 1896, and 1902, when the mercury reached 90. No prostrations were reported.

BAGGED LARGE BEAR.

Bruin Found in Park Near City of Washington, N. C.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., May 26.—Considerable excitement was occasioned this morning in and around Washington Park, just on the outskirts of the city, when the news became current that a large black bear had been killed in the field at the park. Mr. Woolard had the honor of bagging bruin and is very proud of his achievement. For several weeks parties in that section of the city have noticed evidences of his bearship and since that time a careful lookout has been the consequence. Mr. Wollard fortunately this morning had his gun when he came in contact with his bearship. A well directed aim by Mr. Wollard brought down the stranger. The bear had a bed on the farm, found since his capture, and it is thought there is another on the premises now in hiding. It has been some time since a bear has been bagged so close to the city limits.

DEMOCRATS HAVE CLASH.

Police Called at Norfolk Meeting to Chose Election Officials.

Norfolk, Va., May 26.—When the electorial board of Norfolk county met in Portsmouth today to name judges and clerks of election of party the straightout Democrats opposing fusion insisted upon a public meeting. When the board decided to pursue the usual policy and decline to admit the public, the straightouts refused to leave. The police had to be called before they would do so. The board received a list of nominations from the straightout faction and then proceeded to name the election officials who will serve in Norfolk county for the next year.

DR. G[illegible] GUILTY OF HERESY

Charges Against Him Sustained by Presbyterian Assembly at Atlantic City—Other Cases Dropped—Bryan.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 26.—The Presbyterian General Assembly today adopted by an overwhelming vote a report of the judicial commission finding the Rev. Dr. William D. Grant, of Northumberland, Pa., guilty of having "taught doctrines contrary to the word of God contained in the Bible and the Presbyterian confession of faith," and suspending him from exercising the functions of a minster of the church until he can convince his own Presbytery that he has renounced the errors he has been found to hold.

The cases against the Rev. William Adams Brown, professor in Union Theological Seminary and President Francis Brown, of the same institution, were dropped by the Assembly.

A resolution that "all ministers are admonished to avoid any utterances calculated to disturb the peace of the church" were adopted.

Two propositions to reduce the size of the General Assembly were voted down by the commissioners at the session this afternoon. One of the plans suggested would bring the membership from about 880 to 600, while under the other plan the approximate membership would be 552.

While both plans were defeated by a large majority, several speeches in favor of the decrease were received with applause.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Caughey, of New York, a resolution that the Presbyteries take a vote on the proposition to hold the Assembly every two years instead of every year after 1912 was carried by a close vote.

William Jennings Bryan twice addressed the Assembly today, on the subjects of the ministeral sustentation fund and temperance.

OIL TRUST DECISION.

Closing Hours of U. S. Supreme Court Are Being Watched.

Washington, May 26.—The closing hours of the present term of the Supreme Court of the United States are being watched for some move on the part of the Standard Oil attorneys to stay the dissolution of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, in accordance with the court's decision that it violated the Sherman anti-trust law. In practically every big case before the court in years a motion has been made by the losing side for a rehearing and many expect that the Standard Oil will pursue the usual course. As the court adjourns Monday until next October, the effect of a motion for re-hearing, even if not granted, eventually might be far reaching.

The pendency of a motion during the Summer would stay the issuance of the court's mandate directing the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, to dissolve the combination. Already the Supreme Court has given the corporation six months after the mandate reaches the lower court in which to dissolve.

If the issuance of the mandate is thus delayed until next October the dissolution need not become effective until probably April, 1912.

President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham have not taken up the question of criminal proceedings against the Standard Oil officials. The President expects to wait until the oil company dissolves under the court's decree before he considers any further government action. It is probable that future proceedings will be contingent upon the way in which the Standard obeys the Supreme Court's order.

AMERICAN SHIPS ABROAD.

Festivities Arranged for Them at Copenhagen—Features.

Copenhagen, May 26.—The officers and men of the four American battleships now visiting here are being favored with beautiful weather, which adds greatly to their enjoyment of the festivities arranged for them. Today Rear Admiral Badger, in command of the squadron, and the officers of the battleships, were presented to King Frederick, had luncheon at the American legation as guests of Dr. Maurice F. Egan, the American minister, and later took an automobile trip with their Danish hosts to Fredericksburg Elsinore and Marienlust. There they were tendered a banquet at which were present the ministers of foreign affairs and of commerce.

Tonight the coast line was illuminated and fire works displayed were set off in honor of the Americans. Today again 2,000 members of the crews of the battleships were given shore leave and everywhere met with popular ovations.

King Frederick's visit to the fleet has been fixed for three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. His majesty will be accompanied by the minister of marine and his military staff. The royal yacht will sail around the fleet, the crews of which will, dress ship and then will visit Admiral Badger on the Louisiana.

Washington, May 26. —The House today adjourned until Tuesday. As that is memorial day no business will be done and another adjournment will be taken until next Friday when the wool tariff revision bill probably will be ready. The measure will be considered by the Democratic caucus Thursday.

THE LORIMER CASE AGAIN IN SENATE

Adjourned Yesterday to Take Up Matter Again on Monday.

LAFOLLETTE'S 4-DAY SPEECH

Wants Committee of Four New Members Named to Investigate—No Handicap by Previous Decision—Bailey Speaks.

Washington, May 26.—After devoting practically the entire session today to the discussion of the proposed re-investigation of the election of Senator Lorimer, the Senate adjourned without action determined to proceed again with the question Monday.

Senator LaFollette concluded his four-day speech and announced that when the voting stage is reached he will so change his resolution as to provide that the Senate shall elect an investigating committee of five from the new senators. Senator Borah supported the LaFollette proposition, and Senators Bailey and Dillingham opposed it.

Mr. LaFollette attacked caucus rule, and denounced the practice of selecting standing committees by caucus as un-American. He indicated that the day would come when the Senate would dispense entirely with the secret caucus, and prophesied the general adoption of the initiative, referendum and recall. "With the recall in use," he said, "no jackpot politician can hold his commission against the wishes of the people he misrepresents."

New investigators had been provided for because Mr. LaFollette believed that the question should go to a committee not handicapped by a previous decision. The next investigating committee, he felt, must have the confidence of the people, which he did not believe the old standing committee of Privileges and Elections would have.

Mr. Bailey said that all the Democratic senators desired a new investigation, he himself favoring it because of the discovery of new evidence. He declared that the public sentiment against Mr. Lorimer was not well informed, because it had been shaped by newspaper expression rather than by reading of the testimony.

"If we have saved the seat of a guilty man," said Mr. Bailey, "we owe a reparation and we shall be ready to make it," he said. He sounded a note of warning to the senate not to be "swayed by mere public clamor."

Senator Bailey suggested that Mr. Hastings in appearing before the Finance Committee might be seeking immunity from being called as a witness in case the government should investigate the so-called "paper trust." Mr. Bailey said that if there was such a trust, he wanted to see it prosecuted. Mr. Hastings announced that he would waive any immunity he might secure as a result of his appearance today.

TRADE IMPROVES SLOWLY.

Evidences of Disappointment Visible. Bradstreet's Report.

New York, May 26.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Trade improves slowly, but in a very irregular way. Symptoms of betterment suggested by the trend of affairs last week have not, however, eventuated in the sustained, spreading improvement that was hoped for, hence some evidences of disappointment are visible. Retail trade in consonence with continued seasonable weather, has expanded, but the turnover is still below anticipations, and in various parts of the country bargain sales are features. Wholesale, considered as a whole, remains quiet. Cotton goods are firmer and there is more doing in leather, with prices higher. Industrial operations are, on the light side, particularly in iron and steel and textile lines. Building is less active than it was last season. Collections range from slow to fair.

Summed up, the situation as a whole indicates a volume of trade that would have been deemed good a few years ago, and, furthermore, suggests optimism enough despite evident lagging tendencies, but the main desire still is to procure more light as to future events, particularly prospective crop yields and tariff changes, before anticipating real sustained betterment in trade.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending Maq 25th were 236 against 235 last week and 200 in the like week of 1910.

EARLY VOTE ON RECIPROCITY.

Prediction of Vice-President Sherman—Doubt as to Passage.

Washington, May 26.—Vice-President Sherman, a White House caller today, declared that he expected a vote to be taken on the Canadian reciprocity bill in the Senate by June 15th and said he would not be surprised to see Congress adjourn long before October. Mr. Sherman didn't say whether he expected the reciprocity bill to pass.

The Vice-President's optimism as to an early vote on reciprocity is not shared by a number of senators. President Taft told callers today that while he still is of the opinion that the bill will pass, he is not counting on a vote so soon as June 15th.

SERIOUS FIRE AT ROSEBORO

Property Loss of Some $15,000, Only Partially Covered by Insurance. The Losses and Amounts. New Brick Buildings.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., May 26.—The town of Roseboro, Sampson county, was visited by a distastrous fire today, entailing a property loss of some $15,000. The fire started in the building occupied by the Roseboro Furniture Co., and the origin is not certainly known, but is supposed to have been from a stove flue in the second story of the building. The losses are as follows, as nearly as can be ascertained now:

R. P. Howell, building and stock, $1,400, insurance, $1,300.

A. J. Simmons, three buildings and stock, $2,500, insurance, $1,000.

D. W. Tart, stock of drugs, $1,000, insurance, $500.

Mrs. Penny Autry, store and stables, $1,000, no insurance.

Mrs. Sallie Cooper, dwelling and stables, $1,500, insurance $500.

A. E. Underhill, store and warehouse, $2,000, no insurance.

Fillyaw Brothers, stock, $1,000, no insurance.

J. E. Wilson, building, $500, no insurance.

Roseboro Telephone Exchange, loss $100, no insurance.

New brick building will be erected in place of the frame now destroyed and the town will go forward.

Another Account.

Roseboro, N. C., May 26.—The largest fire that was ever witnessed at this place, destroyed almost the entire block west of the A. C. L. depot this morning. The fire was discovered in an upper room of the Brock building about 8 o'clock this morning, but when discovered had made such headway that it was seen that it would be impossible to save the building, and only by heroic work was the depot saved. The total loss is estimated around $10,000, with about one-third covered by insurance. The losers were as follows: D. W. Tart, part of stock of drugs; R. P. Howell, building and stock of goods; Fillyaw Bros., stock of goods; Mrs. C. J. Autry, storehouse and stables; Mrs. Sallie E. Cooper, dwelling house and stables; W. T. Bryan, household goods; W. E. Underwood, store house, dwelling, warehouse and stables; J. W. Wilson store house and part of stock of millinery; the telephone exchange building, owned by A. J. Simmons; part of stock of the Roseboro Furniture Co.

The fire started from a defective stove flue in the Brock building, which is a two-story structure owned by A. J. Simmons, the lower floor being occupied by the Roseboro Furniture Company, and the upper floor by Fillyaw Brothers, as a dwelling. All the building being of wood and situated close together, it was utterly impossible to check the flames until nearly the entire block had been swept.

MOVE AGAINST POLICE.

Resolution Passed by House Against Capitol Guardians.

Washington, May 26.—That the policemen's lot is not a happy one, was evidenced again today when the House passed a resolution by Representative Roddenbery, of Georgia, shopping off the official heads of 35 guardians of the capitol. The policemen took to the Senate to save them, and it is believed it will. The resolution precipitated a long wrangle in which personal grudges largely figured.

Former Speaker Cannon and Representative Sherwood, of Ohio, Democrat, clashed when Mr. Cannon denounced what he called obstructive tactics to the Democrats in preventing the passage of Republican pension legislation. Mr. Sherwood promptly replied that when the Illinoisian was speaker he had prevented consideration of the Sherwood $1-a-day pension measure.

"The gentleman from Illinois shows a remarkable amount of gall," said Mr. Sherwood, with warmth. "In coming here now trying to gain credit for a measure that he wouldn't let come up last session."

PEACE ADVOCATES ARE MUCH PLEASED

ASKS EARNEST CO-OPERATION

Appeal to President Taft to Use His Best Efforts to Bring About International Agreement — The Features.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., May 26.—In all the six years in which advocates of international arbitration have met here annually to review the progress of their cause they have never looked back with more satisfaction than they do upon the "impressive advances of the past year, so signal as to make the year the most memorable in the history of international progress in the United States."

This declaration of satisfaction is made at the outset of a lengthy platform which the Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration unanimously adopted tonight.

A feature of the session was the adoption of a supplementary resolution appealing to President Taft to use his best effort to bring about the international agreement bonding the nations of the earth from extending their system of armament to airships.

The conference calls upon the people for such earnest co-operation as to insure the execution of the arbitration treaties by the United States with Great Britain and France and urges that this country offer similar treaties to all nations ready to conclude them with the United States.

The conference expresses its gratitude over Congressional action in authorizing the President to create a commission to consider the limitation of the armaments and expresses the belief that if this country once set about such a plan with resolute initiative it would win the practical co-operation of other powers.

The platform urges that the next Hague Conference consider the limitation of armament, the immunity of ocean commerce in time of war, and the prohibition of loans to belligerent nations by neutral countries. The platform urges "such comprehensive plans for the coming celebration of the centennial of peace between Great Britain and the United States as will make the commemoration a notable landmark in progress, not only for these two nations but for the family of nations."

The resolution hails the recent gifts of Andrew Carnegie and Edwin Ginn "as a new evidence of the new demonstration of strong men to cope at last with the evils of war."

In an address on American diplomacy today Oscar S. Straus, of New York, member of the Hague Court, twice minister and once Ambassador to Turkey, said that American diplomacy had always encouraged unhampered commerce and effective neutrality, and he urged the importance of adhering strictly to that policy. A great step forward, he declared, would be to make it unlawful for neutral nations or their subjects to issue war loans or sell munitions of war to belligerent powers. In part he said:

"When commerce was identified with piracy, and subsequently with the utter disregard of neutral rights, it was continually a source of irritation, and aggravated the militant spirit between nations, but with the growth of the modern industrial development and the extension of foreign trade, nations no longer find it profitable to be hostile to one another because of their prosperity. The commercial spirit, while it is competitive, is not a militant spirit, for in its final analysis foreign commerce rests upon neutrality, and a wealthy and prosperous nation is a much better customer than a poor nation. The commercial spirit, therefore, from enlightened self-interest favors the promotion of prosperity in other nations. The only apparent exception to this modern spirit of commerce is to be found in relation to trade with oriental nations where there is a tendency on the part of the great powers to establish spheres of influence and to force special concessions and exclusive privileges to the detriment of competing nations. America again has come to the forefront in insisting upon the 'Open Door' in China and in other oriental lands. The American policy which was so felicitiously characterized by Secretary Hay, as that of the 'Monroe Doctrine and the Golden Rule,' is an international policy of the highest equity and justice, and it should ever be our vigilant care that these two parallel purposes of our national policy in foreign affairs should not be construed as to become incompatible in guarding our continental interests and our peaceful relations with the nations of the world."

"It is largely due to the vast extension of commercial intercourse between nations in our times, which rest upon reciprocity, that the standard of public morals has been lifted from the lower sphere of international expediency to the higher sphere of morality and law. The standard of international morality yet continues to lag far behind the standard of commercial fair dealing within nations; the evidences of this are no more glaringly exhibited than in the exceptions in the laws of neutrality, which rest not on principle but on legal casuistry. As the law now stands it is entirely lawful for the subjects of neutrals to supply belligerents with arms and ammunition, as well as by public subscription or otherwise raise loans to aid belligerents; yet the fact that such loans can be legally contracted, not only makes was possible, when otherwise either or both belligerents would be prevented by economic necessities from beginning a war, or when begun from prolonging it. The Russo-Japanese War would certainly have certainly come to an earlier end if neither belligerent could have borrowed money from the subjects of neutrals.

"It requires no argument to prove such acts are against the fundamental principles of real neutrality, and no more practical work can be undertaken in the promotion of peace, than to hasten the day when such contraband commerce and loans will no longer be considered lawful."

PARIS TO MADRID RACE ENDS

Madrid, May 26.—Pierre Vedrine, the French aviator, completed today the cross country, cross mountain flight in the Petit Parisiens race from Paris to Madrid and tonight is the lion of the Spanish capital. On the lapel of his coat hangs the Cross of the Order of Alfonso XII., which is reserved for persons who have distinguished themselves in the arts and sciences. It was pinned there by the hand of the Spanish monarch, who, at an audience granted Vedrine today, also warmly shook his hand and congratulated him for his intrepid bravery.

Vedrine completed the last stage of the race, a flight of 140 miles, from Burgos to the aviation field at Getafe, in two hours and 45 minutes. The honors and emoluments of the great international flight all belong to him, for Garros is still within the fastnesses of the Pyrennees mountains near Ondoain and Gibert, the only other competitor, abandoned the race this afternoon at Burgos when a strong wind, accompanied by rain, set in. Gibert made a game effort to finish. He left Olazagutia, where he spent last night, at 7:25 o'clock this morning and finally gave up the race at 2:50 o'clock this afternoon. His distance today was about 100 miles.

The official time for Vedrine's flight of the 1,163 kilometers, (721 miles) between Paris and Madrid is given as 37 hours, 27 minutes, which includes the numerous delays in transit due to making repairs, waits for fogs to clear away, etc. His actual time of flight, however, was 12 hours, 18 minutes, which is at a rate above 60 miles an hour.

Tonight a terrific rain storm accompanied by high winds burst over the earodrome at Getafe and wrought considerable damage to the grand stands and hangars.

The race was under the auspices of the Petit Parisien, which offered a prize of $20,000. The Spanish Aero Club added a prize of $10,000 and King Alfonso offered a special prize for speed over Spanish territory.

HASTINGS ADMITS SCHEME.

Advised Paper Makers to Get All They Could Out of Product.

Washington, May 26.—Acknowledgment was made today that the American Paper & Pulp Association at times had advised its members to curtail their production of paper and that its purpose was to "educate the paper manufacturers of the country to get all they could for their product." The admission came from Arthur C. Hastings, president of the American Paper & Pulp Association, who before the Senate Finance Committee opposed the Canadian reciprocity agreement. He denied, however, that any attempt had been made to fix arbitrarily the price of paper by gentlemen's agreement or otherwise. Mr. Hastins denied the existence of a paper trust that dictates prices. Mr. Hastings acknowledged, in reply to a query by Senator Stone, that he had sent out letters last July to the members of the association advising them to reduce their product because of oversupply of the market and that at other times he had advised storing part of their product until supply and demand were more nearly equal. He denied that he had suggested to them the price they should demand or at what price they should sell.

CELEBRATION AT MOBILE.

Marks Bicentennial at Founding of the City—Taft Pressed Button.

Mobile, Ala., May 26.—When President Taft, in Washington, this morning pressed an electric button, he signalled to distant Mobile the start of a parade that was the first feature of a celebration marking the bicentennial of the founding of the Gulf City by Iberville, Bienville and other French pioneers. Following the preliminaries of the celebration, a tablet in commemoration of the bi-centennial fete, was unveiled in the city hall, which was the old French palace royal.

In the parade were 300 blue jackets and marines from the fleet stationed at Pensacola. The tars were under command of Rear Admiral Ward and Lucien Young.

The celebration ended tonight with a banquet in honor of the military and naval visitors.

DIAZ NOW LEAVES HIS NATIVE LAND

Goes Secretly to Vera Cruz in Night to Take Steamer for Madrid.

RESIGNS AND THEN FLEES

Used Narsow Guage Railroad to Prevent Detection—Inauguration of President De LaBarra Took Place Yesterday.

Mexico City, May 26.—Porfirio Diaz, for whom during 30 years all Mexico stood to one side, early today, hat in hand, stole from the capitol. Only a few devoted friends, whom he dared to trust, followed him to the station at 2 o'clock this morning shortly after the celebration over his resignation had quieted down.

Diaz was bound for Vera Cruz to take ship for Spain. In the distance he could hear the voices of a few of the more enthusiastic citizens, who were still acclaiming to the new president, Francisco Leon de LaBarra, and shouting "Viva Madero."

So carefully were the arrangements made for the abdicated President's escape, that the news did not transpire until late today. Secrecy was due less to apprehension of a popular outburst than to a desire to reach Vera Cruz before marauders along the route could learn of the trip.

Travel between Mexico City and Vera Cruz usually is over the Mexican Railroad, a standard guage line, with modern equipment. Rails along this route, however, frequently have been removed of late by bandits, who were determined that Diaz, for reasons best known to themselves, should not leave the capital. They are reported to have harbored the idea that Diaz would follow the precedent of other Latin presidents and carry the National funds with him.

There is also a narrow guage railroad to the coast. Taking it for granted that Diaz would take the more luxurious route, the bandits did not molest the narrow guage road. For this reason, it was chosen by Diaz for his trip.

The general should have reached Vera Cruz this afternoon, but whether he arrived is not publicly known here. Presumably, de LaBarra and the higher governmental officials have been informed of Diaz's movements, but their lips are sealed on every detail. Even Americans high in authority with the road have been impressed with the necessity for maintaining silence.

Gen. Diaz, still feeble from his illness and far from being a well man, left his home under dreary circumstances. Rain had fallen earlier in the night, and, by the time the former President emerged from his house, the air was chilly. He was closely muffled. To aid in the disguise, a borrowed automobile was used.

The trip to San Lazaro station was made over unfrequented streets.

By a prearranged scheme, at the last moment, police were scattered along the way. At certain points, close friends of the former chief executive, including those who are to accompany him across the Atlantic, fell in behind the Diaz automobile.

Three trains were used, the first as a pilot. The Diaz special followed. A third train, occupied by a detachment of the 25th infantry, brought up the rear. The cars of the fugitives' special were occupied as follows:

First car—Gen. Diaz and Mrs. Diaz, Mrs. Romero Rubio DeTeresa, Col. Porfirio Diaz, Jr., and Lieut. Lorenzo Elizaga and their families.

Second car—Gen. Fernandina Gonzales, Manuel Gonzales, Col. Santa Cruz, Major Espinosa Y. Rondero.

Third car—Francisco S. Garcia, Ignacio de LaGarita, and a kitchen crew.

The trains ran without orders for fear that the bandits along the line might tap the wires and get news of the flight.

Just when, or on what ship Gen. Diaz will sail is a matter of conjecture. The French ship Espagne was due to leave Vera Cruz yesterday, but many have been held at the disposal of the party from Mexico City.

A Spanish liner, the Maneul Calvo, is scheduled to weigh anchor tomorrow, sailing via Havana to Barcelona. A German ship on which the Diaz party recently reserved staterooms, sails next Wednesday. These reservations have not been cancelled. Gen. Diaz probably will make his home in Madrid.

De LaBarra Takes Oath.

The inauguration today of deLaBarra as provisional President, was a brief affair, occupying only ten minutes.

The oath was adminstered by the president of the Chamber of Deputies. The provisional President stood with his hand extended and repeated the oath. It is not the custom in Mexico to use the Bible in taking the oath, nor is the name of the deity used. A portion of the oath reads:

"I promise, without any reservation whatsoever, to keep and see to the keeping of the political constitution of the United States of Mexico with its additions and amendments, the reform laws, those laws depending thereon, and to discharge loyally and patriotically the office of provisional President of the Republic which by law devolves upon me, having as my

BASEBALL THIS AFTERNOON.

Fans Hope That Clouds Will Clear Away in Time for Contests.

While everybody is looking for rain, in fact really wants rain, the baseball fans are anxious to see the elements clear enough to let the teams in the City League play the first games in the second round. All the teams are getting down to business by this time and are playing better ball each Saturday and after each game the spectators come away better satisfied with the ball put up.

The first game this afternoon, which starts at 3 o'clock, will be between the Y. M. C. A. boys and the Boys' Brigade fast aggregations. Many changes advantageous to both teams have taken place during the past two weeks and both are confident of crossing the plate for a winning number of runs.

The second game, called at 5 o'clock, will be between the W. L. I. and the A. C. L. Stars. Green will twirl for the latter team and S. Schulken, of Bingham School fame, will grace the mound for the W. L. I. soldier boys.

This city is now offering to the public something new—two classy games every Saturday. Games well worth seeing and as interesting as the Eastern Carolina League games of seasons past.

WOLGAST AND BURNS.

Pugilists Will Fight for Light Weight Honors Today.

San Francisco, May 26.—Champion Ad. Wolgast, of Cadillac, Mich., and Frankie Burns, of Oakland, Cal., the youthful challenger, who are to fight for the world's light weight pugilistic championship in an open air arena tomorrow afternoon, rested today, after an irksome siege of training. The event of the contest finds both eager to begin the 20-round bout. Jack Welsh will referee.

The jingle of the pool seller's coin would indicate that Burns is in for a trouncing. He is on the end of a ten to four book. Even money that Wolgast will win in 18 rounds found a ready market.

CLEANED UP $132,000.

Startling Revelations as to Representative of this Government.

Washington, May 26.—The smartest citizen that has drifted this way recently is Dr. Jacob H. Hollander, who was sent to Santo Domingo by President Roosevelt as agent of this government to help the Dominican government adjust its foreign and domestic debts. The doctor had been treasurer of Porto Rico and was an expert in figures and finance. He describes himself as a constructional financier.

Without Mr. Root, who was Secretary of State at that time, and the minister of finance of Santo Domingo knowing it, he was drawing money from both governments. In all, in the short space of a few years he got from Uncle Sam $32,000 and the Dominican government, $100,000. The House Committee on Expenditures in the State Department, Mr. Hamlin, of Missouri, chairman, is looking into Dr. Hollander's connection with this government. Dr. Hollander, who now resides in Baltimore and is a college professor, testified in his own behalf Wednesday, and no better witness ever went before a committee. He is not only an expert in finance but on the witness stand. The committee, try as it did, could not trap him. He told a straight story and put it up to the State Department. He said that Senator Root and his assistant secretary, Robert O. Bacon, now ambassador to France, knew that he was to receive pay from the Dominican government if the results of his efforts at adjustment were successful.

I went to see Senator Root about this after the hearing was over and he said that he knew no such thing.

Dr. Hollander is a middle-aged man, with large nose, black hair, and clear-cut features. He talks well and thinks faster than the Committee on Expenditures in the State Department. He was apparently, a willing witness. Chairman Hamlin and Mr. Dent, of the committee, grilled him for hours but he was always ready.

"For months there was no understanding about my pay," said Dr. Hollander. "I took the matter up with Mr. Bacon. He said that I should receive $1,000 a month for my work as expert financier, and upon the completion of my task, if the Dominican government saw fit to give me anything, I could receive it. This agreement was submitted to Mr. Root, and he approved it. Nothing was put in writing. It was necessary that such agreements be verbal, for one day, to accomplish my task, I represented the United States and the next, the Dominican government. I know that the situation was fully understood by the representatives of both governments. I was the mouthpiece of both governments.

"I think that Mr. Root knew that I was to represent both governments."

President Roosevelt sent Dr. Hollander to Santo Domingo to investigate. This was his first trip. It was found that the government, with a debt of $30,000,000, was virtually bankrupt. On receiving Dr. Hollander's report Mr. Roosevelt took steps to help the country out of a hole. A treaty was made. One of the provisions of it was that the customs collected should be turned over to a United States officer The debt was scaled from $30,000,000 to about $17,000,000. This was done by Dr. Hollander who made a trip to London, Antwerp, Paris and other places to see the creditors. He arranged to get $20,000,000 from New York capitalists to take up the old bonds, and issue new ones His task was a great one but he finally did it. No question of his efficiency has ever arisen. The great killing that he made caused somewhat of a sensation. Very few experts pick up $132,000 in a few years. But, as the doctor said on the stand, nobody, neither here nor in Santo Domingo, tried to stop payment of the handsome sum he was handed by the Dominican government. The committee tried to bring out some testimony that would connect Wall Street with the gift of $100,000 but did not succeed. The concensus of opinion here seems to be that Dr. Hollander has comea through with his rich haul without a scar, or a trail.

"I was introduced to the minister of finance of Santo Domingo," said Dr. Hollander, "as the man that could advise the people of the Dominican government what to do. The problem was the adjustment of the Dominican debts. I was to get the best settlement possible. I did my part. I thought I was to serve both countries, as they were jointly interested. The two governments were on one side and bankers and financiers on the other. All creditors, domestic and foreign, were to fare alike. The United States had promised a square deal. All debts were to be adjusted upon a basis of equity.

"My first problem was to see if the money could be had if a fair arrangement for the settlement of the debts was made. I worked in New York and Washington. Having secured a promise of the money I went to Europe to get the consent of the creditors. A loan of $20,000,000, at 96, had been agreed upon. The debts had to be adjusted to this amount. I was undertaking a delicate bit of work. There was danger of foreign complications."

Dr. Hollander did his work well, and got good pay for it. He is smooth. He is alert. His friends must be proved of him. He would make a fine Secretary of State.

INTER-COLLEGIATE MEET.

Preliminary Trials at Cambridge — Various Events.

Cambridge, Mass., May 26.—Followers of the various colleges, who had hoped that today's preliminary trials would definitely indicate the probable winner of the 36th annual meeting of the Inter-Collegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America to be held in the Harvard Stadium tomorrow were disappointed. Pennsylvania and Yale qualified fourteen men each in the sprints, hurdles, middle-distance runs and field events, and the exports would regard the finals as a duel between these two universities were it not for the fact that Cornell, with ten men, is admirably strong in the long-distance runs.

Eight sturdy athletes from Michigan won preliminary honors, especially R. R. Craig, the lightning sprinter, who won his trial heat in the 100-yard and furlong dashes, with his head turned towards his followers. Some wonderful running is expected of him tomorrow.

Princeton beat out Harvard for fifth place by a single man, the former getting seven men to the Crimson's six, while Dartmouth was seventh with four men left in the running.

The surprises of the day were the strength of the Yale and the failure of Cornell to come up to expectations.

GOOD ROADS CONGRESS.

Number of Interesting Features Marked Day at Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., May 26.—A misunderstanding as to the organization of the National Good Roads Congress for a time threatened to disrupt the final session of the Congress here this afternoon. Explanation and apologies, however, restored good feeling before the adjournment.

Gene Whitson, of Tennessee, precipitated the trouble when he inquired if the time had not arrived for the election of officers. It was explained that the Congress was a subsidiary organization of the National Good Roads Association and the officers of the latter also conducted the affairs of the Congress. The authority was thus centralized, it was said, to make the work more effective. Mr. Whitson and others then withdrew their remarks with apologies.

At the morning session Congressmen R. P. Hobson and John L. Burnett, of Alabama, addressed the Congress. Both men discussed Federal aid for highways.

HEMWOOD FOR MURDER.

Sent to Jail Accused of Killing S. L. Von Phul.

Denver, Colo., May 26.—Frank H. Hemwood must stand trial for the slaying of Sylvester L. Von Phul, amateur balloonist and wine salesman, whom Hemwood shot during a quarrel over a woman in the barroom of a hotel Wednesday night. A coroner's jury today held that Hemwood shot Von Phul "with felonious intent."

Soon after the verdict was returned, Hemwood was taken from the city jail to the county jail.

That Hemwood and Von Phul had wrangled frequently of late, over their attentions to a Denver matron developed today. Two photographs of Hemwood, which Hemwood gave to a Denver banker and horse breeder and to the banker's wife, a former St. Louis woman, had been removed from the banker's apartments. These photographs, torn in pieces, were found in the pockets of Von Phul.

GOV. WILSON AT LINCOLN.

New Jersey Governor Addresses Commercial Club.

Lincoln, Neb, May 26.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was the guest today of Lincoln, and he put in several busy hours until he started South tonight. At the University of Nebraska he spoke briefly.

He then made a call at the Fairview home of William J. Bryan, stopping on the way to visit his old friend, Benjamin Andrews, formerly chancellor of the University of Nebraska, who is recuperating in a sanitarium.

Washington, May 26.—Russia is conceding the right of railway into that country of American Jews visiting the Czar's damains on business missions. The Russian embassy here is now issuing pasports of this kind to properly identify American Jewish business.

MRS. J. M. BORDEAUX DEAD.

Passed Away at An Early Hour This Morning—Brief Illness.

Many friends will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mrs. Gertrude Narcisa Bordeaux, beloved young wife of Mr. J. M. Bordeaux, who died at 1:15 o'clock this morning at the family residence, No. 710 South Third street, after a brief illness. She was 26 years old and is survived by her husband, one little son; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Barnes; one brother, Mr. Clarence Barnes, and three sisters, Mrs. W. F. Furplass, Mrs. Pertha McKoy and Miss Hopie Barnes, all of Wilmington. They have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement. Mrs. Bordeaux was a consistent member of Immanuel Presbyterian church and was a most estimable young woman. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Tyrell Bank Complications — Two Charters Issued—High School Debate—New Bank Building —Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—State Bank Examiner J. K. Doughton has gone to Columbia, to take a hand in the adjustment of the tangle in the affairs of the Merchants' & Farmers' Bank, the cashier of which, R. M. Spruill, took his own life Tuesday when a special auditor procured by the directors went into the bank to make an examination.

It was only a few weeks ago that Examiner Doughton was there and went thoroughly into the books and papers and made demands upon the bank management for changes in the way of improvements of many securities and more up-to-date condition of the boks. The Corporation Commission has had no further word from the bank since the announcement from the president that the cashier had suicided and that a special auditor was adjusting the books. One of the most serious conditions that the bank examiner found is understood to have been unsecured notes for considerable amounts by parties whose signature have no commercial rating. Also the books were found to be unposted for days and in some instances for weeks. A former president of the bank was found to be several thousand dollars overdrawn.

There was a charter today for the Eagle Printing Co., Spray, N. C., capital $125,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by A. C. Phelps, C. P. Wall and others. Another charter was for The Panacea Springs Co., of Littleton, capital $125,000 by M. C. Braswell and others.

Cary J. Hunter, Jr., has won the gold medal for Raleigh High School students as the best debater, given by Chas. U. Harris, of this city. The debate was held last night, the query being: "Resolved that the open shop is beneficial to the working man." The judges were Rev. W. McC. White, Dr. Henry Jerome Stockard and Dr. Thomas P. Harrison. The medal was presented this morning in connection with the graduating exercises of the school. There are 21 graduates.

Preparations are on foot for the erection of a splendid ten-story bank building by the Citizens' National Bank on the site of their present building and additional ground recently purchased. The building is to be 35x80 feet and is to be practically fireproof. The bank has leased a temporary banking house in the Woodard building on Fayetteville street near Martin street and will move into it very soon.

Col. J. Bryan Grimes, as chairman of the North Carolina Historical Commission, and Adjutant General R. L. Leinster, announce the decision to make the memorial to the lamented J. F. Armfield, adjutant general of the North Carolina National Guard, a marble bust of this gallant officer of the citizen soldiery of the State. The members of the North Carolina Guard Association were canvassed as to their preference and the bust was the almost unanimous choice, hence the announcement.

Josh Beasley, known and liked by prominent citizens in every quarter of the State as the alert and faithful porter in the Capital Club, this city, died suddenly in the club building last afternoon. He was found in an unconscious condition in one of the card rooms and was dead by the time medical aid could reach him. He died of heart failure.

The General Orders, No. 5, for the encampment of the different regiments of the National Guard at Camp Glenn, this Summer, are just issued from the office of Adjutant General Leinster. In accordance with the agreement reached by the Guard advisory board here recently, the encampment opens with the Third Regiment July 10th to 17th. And the other two have dates respectively, July 20th to 27th for second infantry and August 3rd to 10th for first infantry. Then there will be the Coast Artillery Corps at Fort Caswell, August 7th to 18th.

An annual inspection of the North Carolina naval militia has been ordered to take place at the home stations of the several divisions in the following order: Second division, of Newbern, June 29th; sixth division, Oriental, June 30th! fifth division, Elizabeth City, July 1st; seventh division Hertford, July 3rd; fourth division, Plymouth, July 5h;; third division, Windsor, July 6th. The inspections are to be made by Assistant Inspector General H. D. Harper, who ranks as lieutenant colonel.

Robbed Rocky Mount Pastor of His Coin—Letter Carriers to Meet.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 27.—Arising this morning Pastor C. G. Lowe, of the Baptist church, found that during the night his trousers had been fished out of a convenient window his pockets rifled of $2 in cash. Fortunately he had removed his watch from his clothing before retiring and this was safe.

Tuesday, Federal Memorial Day, the rural letter carriers for this section will meet in their semi-annual convention. President W. H. Anderson, of Speed, will preside. The address of welcome to the visitors will be by Senator T. T. Thorne. Among other local speakers will be Mr. J. O. W. Gravely. Following the business sessions, there will be a barbecue dinner in Crew's warehouse by the local association, whose guests the visitors will be. The sessions will be held in the municipal building.

THE DUNN SHOOTING AFFAIR

Lawyer Involved in Sensational Shooting f Officer in Harnett County Thursday—Aiken is Still at Large.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., May 26.—Quite a little sensation was sprung here last night upon receipt of a telephone message at the office of Sheriff McGeachy, telling of the shooting of Deputy Sheriff I. S. Jernigan by John W. Aiken the same afternoon at 4 o'clock. The shooting ocurred in the Averasboro neighborhood, near Dunn. Jernigan being shot through the liver and little or no hope being entertained for his recovery.

The Fayetteville Observer this morning got in communication with Editor Pittman, of the Dunn Guide, and received from him the particulars of the shooting, which are given in the Observer this afternoon as follows:

"Aiken, who did the shooting, is a bad man, and has given considerable trouble in Dunn. He was under bond to appear at court on a charge of the illicit sale of whiskey. He failed to appear at court, and the judge issued a capias, which Deputy Sheriff Jernigan, with a posse, went to serve. When they reached the house near Dunn where Aiken and a lawyer by the name of John Coates were together, Coates barred the door and advised Aiken to resist arrest.The door was forced open, when it was found that Aiken had escaped through a window.

"Deputy Jernigan followed Aiken, and when overtaken Aiken shot Jernigan down. Others of the posse coming up, he continued to fire until he emptied his pistol and made his escape.

"Governor Kitchin, who was communicated with by wire, ordered out the Dunn military company, and they immediately went on duty. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Lawyer Coates as an accessory. He was taken into custody and lodged in the Dunn guard house and a squad of fifteen soldiers placed around the building.

"Sheriff J. B. Lanier was notified by wire at Lillington. Sheriff Lanier telephoned here to Sheriff McGeachy to meet him at the Raleigh & Southport depot last night, and the sheriff detailed Deputy Monaghan for that duty. Deputy Monaghan met Sheriff Lanier, and the two officers took the northbound train for Dunn. Arrived at Dunn, Deputy Monaghan telegraphed, in the name of Sheriffs Lanier and McGeachy, to Division Superintendent Newell at Rocky Mount, asking that train No. 85 be stopped at Dunn, so that Coats might be brought on to Fayetteville. Supt. Newell had the train to stop at Dunn, and the officers brought Coats to Fayetteville.

"Sheriff Lanier this morning took Coates to Lillington over the Raleigh & Southport and committed him to jail.

"The military is still on duty in Dunn, and details have been sent in every direction in search of Aiken, who has not yet been apprehended.

"Jernigan, who is a highly respected citizen, has been a deputy sheriff for years. He has a wife and three children Feeling over the matter is very strong in Dunn.

"The Observer received a telephone message from Dunn at about 12:30 today, announcing the death there this morning of Mr. Thomas Dupree, a member of the Lee Hardware Company. Mr. Dupree was one of the most prominent citizens of Dunn, and his death has cast a gloom over the community. The funeral will be conducted in Dunn tomorrow."

Washington, May 26.—The House today authorized $25,000 for the expenses of the "Steel Trust" investigating committee. The committee will begin open hearings tomorrow by querying John W. Gates, regarding the taking over of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company by the steel corporation, Mr. Gates having been heavily interested in the coal and iron company.

When the back begins to ache,
Don't wait until backache becomes chronic;
Till serious kidney troubles develop;
Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.
Profit by a Wilmington citizen's experience.

Mrs. W. W. Mince, 712 Vollers St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time kidney trouble clung to me and I was caused great annoyance by the kidney secretions. My back ached and I did not seem able to get a minute's peace. Some days I was hardly able to move around to attend to my work. At last I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Bellamy's drug store and they restored me to good health." (Statement given February 24, 1908.)

Always Effective.

Mrs. Mince was interviewed on December 27, 1910, and she said: "I can still speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them as being good for kidney trouble. During the past two years I have taken this remedy and it has always had a prompt and beneficial effect."

Commencement Exercises Of Pleasing Nature Mark Close of Year.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raeford, N. C., May 23.—The closing exercises of Raeford Institute passed off very pleasantly with the usual fine programme and large crowds that have always marked the mile posts in the pilgrimage of this splendid institution.

The baccalaureate sermon, also the address to the W. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., were delivered by Rev. Mr Roberts, of Carthage, and were both timely and well received The recitters' and declaimers' contests showed thorough training. Miss Lentz won the former and Mr. Crawley the latter. On Thursday at 11 A. M., Dr. Charles Lee Smith, of Macon, Ga., delivered the literary address to a great crowd which had gathered from parts of the State and South Carolina. The spacious auditorium was well filled and all enjoyed to the fullest the splendid effort by this scholarly man. A brief synopsis would do Dr. Smith an injustice so we defer. Following the masterful address, was the highly interesting senior class exercises which were brief but full of wit and humor, and happy "hits." President Teague in a few happy remarks, presented diplomas to the following: Misses Agnes Upchurch, Annie May Fuller, Ruth Townsend, Florence Dickson, Roy Womble, Kate Blue and James Dickson. The class like the student body, had been probably thinned by the small-pox scare of the Spring. Thus closed a most successful year.

The trustees re-elected Professor Teague, who ranks among North Carolina's ablest educators. He will spend part of his vacation visiting some of the model schools in the North and West. If there is anything that Hoke county is proud of (and there are many), it is this splendid school that has been such a factor in the development of this section of the State, and is second to none in the State.

EIGHT INJURED IN WRECK.

Grand Trunk Train Struck Trolley Freight Train.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 26.—Eight persons were injured, one probably fatally, when a trolley freight train at Tonawanda this afternoon knocked a passenger coach from the middle of a Grand Trunk passenger train, bound from Buffalo to Toronto, Ont., over the Lehigh Valley tracks. The most seriously injured was Mrs. Mary Garrett, of Brantford, Ont.

The accident occurred at a grade crossing of the International Railway and the Lehigh Valley tracks.

The trolley freight consisted of a heavy motor and two flat cars loaded with ties. It struck the passenger train squarely in the middle, driving the second passenger coach from the track and overturning it.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Saturday, May 27, 1911.

If you can't think of anything else, have some other fellow investigated.

"Shall the majority rule?" inquires the Chattanooga Times. She certainly will.

The Senatorial contest in North Carolina promises to be a very dull and common-place affair—for those who expected to finger campaign money.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you." It will also laugh at you if you laugh every time you think you have said something that ought to take the cake.

We never did see any use of an automobile having a voice that sounds like the Bijou theatre's huge mascot Caesar, had lunged at you just to see you jump out of your skin.

Bless you, it's getting to be actually embarrasing to have people going around accusing you of being rich. We know editors who could promptly give the lie to reckless prevaricators like that.

Some of the Senatorial candidates should explain why they shouldn't be held responsible for this long spell of disastrously dry weather now sapping the life out of crops and vegetation and even killing some of the trees in the forests.

If the balance of the United States will watch the Senatorial contest in North Carolina, it will see a United States Senator chosen on account of his ability or usefulness to the people and not on account of the amount of money he may have.

A German got a divorce from his wife because she took medicine to reduce her weight and got so thin and peevish he couldn't live with her. It is stated that she lost 30 pounds of flesh, and there's no wonder, since it seems she never lost an opportunity to everlastingly "give it" to the old man.

It is now said Ex-President Diaz, of Mexico, has a fortune of $70,000,000. It seems he's also been doing something else besides running Mexico. If some people had such a wad as that they wouldn't want to waste time in Mexico when they could swing around the circle and take in every picture shown in the world.

Congress needn't waste any time picking out a Summer capital for the President. The whole thing could be settled in five minutes by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce. Every member of it knows that if President Taft would come to Wilmington and be shown around, he would approve a special meeting to settle the thing at once.

Hurry up with those municipally owned harbor terminals at Wilmington. Col George W. Goethals, engineer in charge of the Panama Canal construction, says it will be completed by the Fall of 1913. That gives us only two years to prepare for a greater commerce for the port of Wilmington, now the fourth cotton exporting port of the entire universe.

It looks like it will be a few more cobs for Senator Lorimer. "The mills of the Gods grind slow but they grind exceeding fine" when they get started on the run after a long shutdown. Be sure, if you are crooked, you will sooner or later simply have to squirm when the crooks are being taken out to make you straight. We feel very sorry to see anybody up against it, but the best thing every man can do for himself is to keep from being fresh meat for "the upper and the nether millstones."

URBAN STREET RAILWAYS.

In "Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science," Thomas Conway, Jr., Ph. D., contributes an exceedingly interesting and informing article on the electric railways in the United States. At the outset he declares that this class of property constitutes one of the most valuable assets of the nation.

Dr. Conway states that the rapid increase in mileage of electric railways which followed the introduction and development of electricity, the success of those enterprises from a financial standpoint, and the immense benefits which they have conferred upon the population tributary to them, have been some of the most notable achievements of the past two decades. He says the securities of the street railway companies have become a favorite field for conservative investors.

According to the last census enumeration, made in 1907,over $3,774,000,000 of this class of securities were outstanding—a sum which Dr. Conway says, exceeds in amount two-thirds of the investments in all forms of manufacturing property in the United States. It is indeed surprising to think of such tremendous values being wrapped up in the numerous street railways of American cities, especially since the electric railway is a utility of recent origin. However, the building of electric railways has hardly begun, and especially in North Carolina, for the time is coming when numerous small towns and rural districts must be connected by electric railways.

Already much more than all the mileage now in existence in North Carolina is projected and is being built, and within twelve months some of the new suburban and interurban lines will add greatly to the transportation facilities in several portions of the State. Eventually they will prove a highly important factor in developing remote and inaccessible communities.

When we stop to think of the great resources to be developed in this and other Southern States it staggers us to contemplate the enormous need of capital to make the progress as rapidly as desired. There is, however, one phase of the street railway business, discussed by Dr. Conway, which is the only dark side of the picture. He says:

"The urban street railway industry at the present time is facing a financial crisis. For some years it has been evident that the net earnings of these properties instead of increasing, as heretofore, with mathematical exactitude, have remained almost stationary, or in some cases have actually declined, in spite of evidence that the communities are growing and that the volume of traffic has largely increased. To electric railway managers and students of the electric railway business the reasons for this condition are not difficult to ascertain. The public at large, most unfortunately, is totally ignorant of the existence of the situation. The reasons for the diminishing returns upon urban street railway properties are: (1) The decrease in the average earnings per rider which has occurred, very materially reducing, or entirely obsetting, the increase in income which would be derived from the growth in traffic; and (2) the widespread, persistent and alarming increase in the cost of maintenance and operation, due largely to causes entirely beyond the control of the management. The companies, therefore, are caught between two dilemmas, both of which work to the same end. The decrease in the average earnings per rider is the result of several important factors. The rapid growth in the size of our cities has had a profound influence upon the street railway industry. The larger city carries with it a longer average ride, which, so far as we can see, is bound to still further increase in succeeding years. Urban street railway fares in America bear no relation to the mileage traveled by the passenger. The rate of fare in most cities is fixed by the franchise ordinances at five cents for a continuous ride. As the length of the ride increases, the rate of fare per mile naturally decreases. Unless this decreased charge can be offset by economies in operation, it is obvious that the companies are bound to lose with a continued growth in the area of our cities."

Dr. Conway refers particularly to the railways in the larger cities, which frequently carry passengers 20 to 30 miles or more for one five cents fare. It is easy to see that the long haul is not so advantageous to the street railway as is the short haul.

CAPTAIN BROWN'S TRANSFER.

The custom of the United States War Department in alternating members of the United States Corps of Engineers, United States Army, may be based on the good of the service, but however that may be, we can but express regret at the transfer of Capt. Earl I. Brown, engineer in charge of river and harbor improvements at Wilmington.

As announced in the Star yesterday, Capt. Brown has been ordered to Galveston to relieve Major Geo. P. Howell, who has been assigned to the Charleston district. The successor of Capt. Brown at Wilmington will be Capt. Horton W. Stickle, who is at present a member of the engineer corps in service with the Isthmian Canal Commission.

We do not doubt that Capt. Stickle will be in every way acceptable to the people of this port, for his connection with the engineer work on the Panama Canal is a guarantee of his ability and efficiency. In fact, such a high standard has been established for and sustained by the Army engineers, that we need not worry over the matter of getting the most capable service in our river and harbor improvements. However, for both personal and professional considerations, sincere regret is felt by Wilmington people that the sphere of Capt. Brown's usefulness and ability has been changed to the fortunate city of Galveston.

Galveston is certainly to be congratulated, but Wilmington also may come in for its share when we know more about Capt. Stickle. Capt. Brown has been in charge of the government work since May 31, 1907, and during the four years of his service tremendous progress has been made in bettering the navigability of our river and harbor and the North Carolina waterways under his charge. Many notable projects have been carried on and the work of Captain Brown, both at Wilmington and elsewhere in the district, has so completely demonstrated his skill and ability as to call forth encomiums from high technical authorities. Even the laymen have seen the results and appreciated the effects and on numerous occasions the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce has attested its appreciation of Capt. Brown and his splendid work in behalf of Wilmington's growing commerce. Capt. Brown's skill, high character and sturdy purpose in the discharge of his duties reflects credit on the engineer corps, and he well deserved the high compliment paid him by Brigadier General Wilson, previously quoted in the Star.

Under the direction of Capt. Brown, the work on Wilmington's 30-foot low-water channel has made such progress that the depth of the navigable channel from Wilmington to the sea is nearly approaching the 28-foot mark, with the probability that the 30-foot depth at low water will be attained in two years. There has been a tremendous development of the commerce of the port, largely due to the heavier draft vessels now coming into port, while the shipping record during the present cotton season has actually demonstrated that cargoes of more than 18,000 bales of cotton have been carried to sea on flood tide. The improvement of the channel and bar has been so marked as to cause regret that Capt. Brown has been ordered away from a work so important to the port of Wilmington.

Not the least of the service rendered by Capt. Brown was his helpfulness to the Chamber of Commerce in its efforts in behalf of ocean navigation. He has gladly attended meetings and with information at first hand given considerable aid and inspiration to the men of Wilmington who are working for the port of Wilmington.

COTTON GAMBLING.

The Manufacturers' Record has come to the deliberate conclusion that dealing in cotton futures is pernicious, and it takes very few words to express its opinion about it. Says our valuable and esteemed contemporary:

"The debate between Lewis W. Parker, of Greenville, S. C., and President Marsh, of the New York Cotton Exchange, at the Richmond meeting of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, confirmed what the Manufacturers' Record has for years claimed, namely, that the New York cotton gamblers are a curse to the legitimate cotton trade of the country."

Mr. Parker, who tackled the very head of the cotton gambling system in this country, seems to have gotten the best of the argument. Mr. Parker, who was thoroughly posted on this question both from investigation of it and experience as a manufacturer, feeling the effects of violent fluctuations in the price of the raw material so necessary to the mills, clearly showed that the methods which so disturb the trade are detrimental to the producer as well as the consumer.

We have no doubt the cotton trade is seriously affected by gambling operations, and so serious a disturbing factor as to require the fullest investigation, if such can be had with a view to a rightful remedy.

Some candidates for the House and Senate in the different States talk like they could "save the nation" if the people would only send them to the National capital, but when they get to Washington they sit around, watch things for awhile and subside into the queescence that saves them from the horse laugh. There are times when most of us find out that though we may be whales in the old swimming hole at home we are but minnows in the swin where the water's deep.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The man who has no money and cannot get hold of any had better keep out of North Carolina politics at the present time.—Durham Herald.

A Methodist bishop is quoted as saying that what editors need is the same code of ethics as doctors and lawyers have. But what has he got against editors?—Salt Lake Tribune.

The Post refrains for a week or so from giving a list of local business men who refuse to join the chamber of commerce, which is here to give them business and to give them a living—Rockingham Post.

The Charlotte Observer is trying out its paragraphic talents in the writing of headlines over the correspondence from the little town of Dunn, located somewhere in North Carolina. Says the Observer, "It may be an old headline, but 'what's doing at Dunn' strikes us as being a perfect gem." Now that the subject has been called to our attention, one cannot help but note that this town offers raw material of the first water for an appropriate slogan. We suggest, "Doing, Done—Dunn." Let some other padded cell enthusiast suggest how else it may daintily be Dunn.—Greenville (S. C.) News.

Governor Kitchin denies the senseless report that he will attack Senator Simmons. Of course, he will not attack Simmons. Why should he attack Simmons or any other candidate? They are all able men and Democrats, and while they may see things in a different way, yet they should all view public questions for the best interest of their State and country. They cannot help build up if they tear one another to pieces. The records of all the candidates are before the people. Let them judge. It is not for the candidates to judge one another, because they are interested, and a discerning and intelligent people may question their motives.—Wilson Times.

A special Washington dispatch bears the information that "a small and obscure publication in Washington had written Judge Clark enclosing an editorial criticism of Senator Simmons which it said would appear in its issue of May 22, and suggested that the judge buy a large number of extra copies, at the rate of $20 for 500 and circulate them in North Carolina, "We will mail them ourselves, if names are furnished, or ship them direct to you," said the letter. The average reader will doubtless grasp the situation in regard to this small and obscure publication, with very little difficulty, and the occurrence calls for little or no comment, but it might be remarked that practices similar to this tend to compromise and degrade the high standard which the press of the country should hold.—Greenville News.

GOVERNOR KITCHIN BACK.

Well Pleased With Progress of Campaign—Charter Issued.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—Governor Kitchin returned today from his Western Carolina trip, having been out of the executive office all week making educational addresses notably at Winston-Salem and Greensboro, the State Normal commencement being the occasion at Greensboro. He declares his senatorial campaign is progressing wonderfully. Letters have been pouring in greater volume than ever, he says, for the past ten days, numbers of men declaring for him whom he had not considered in the list of possibilities in estimating probable support.

A charter is issued for The Websterian Society (incorporated), of Guilford College. It has literary and social objects and the principal incorporators are R. N. Wilson, A. W. Hobbs and others.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent: J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., Front and Grace streets.

UNATARIAN MEETING ENDS.

Eighty-Sixth Anniversary Week Is Brought to Close.

Boston, May 26.—American Unatarian Association brought its 86 th anniversary week exercises to a close tonight with a festival in Tremont Temple, which was attended by hundreds of clergymen and lay delegates. Among the speakers was the Rev. Matthew R. Scott, of Leeds, England, who made an appeal for a little less stiffness in the ministry and for "a religion with a smile on its face.'

John Mason Little, of Boston, was elected president of the National League of Unitarian Laymen. President Taft was re-elected honorary president. United States Senator D. U. Fletcher, of Jacksonville, Fla., was elected a member of the executive committee.

Former Governor John D. Long urged that all the Unatarians unite in giving financial assistance toward the building of the proposed new "principal church" at church. The League has pledged $85,000 to help pay for the building. Unatarians of Washington, will furnish the site. The church is to cost between $250,000 and $30,000, and is to be known as "All-Souls' Cathedral." Adjoining it will be a parish house named after the late Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale.

PILLET HIGHLY ENDORSED

Chief Engineer of Mobile Regards Him Most Competent Man in South on Municipal Construction Work — Letter.

The City Council continues to receive letters of high endorsement of Mr. F. F. Pillet, of Mobile Ala. who was a few days ago elected city engineer of Wilmington his duties to begin June 1st or as soon thereafter as he can be spared from the work on which he is now engaged in Mobile. The four members of the Council present at the meeting and voting for Mr. Pillet Wednesday afternoon regard themselves as exceedingly fortunate in being able to secure the services of such an able engineer, as indicated in the telegrams and letters received by them.

None of those were more complimentary than one received yaterday from Mr. Wright Smith chief engineer of Mobile, Ala., whose letter is as follows:

"Mr. Joseph D. Smith, Mayor, Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir: - I telegraphed you today asking that you give me until the 10th or 15th of June before letting Pillet accept the position you offered. I am in the midst of a large contract for paving and storm sewers and as Pillet has actual charge of the construction, it would embarrass me considerably to let him go at so short a notice. It will be rather difficult for me to replace Mr. Pillet, as in him, I believe I have the most competent man in the South on municipal construction work. Pillet has been assistant engineer here in Mobile for ten years and deserves a better position. I certainly congratulate any city that secures his services. Although I will be inconvenienced by his sudden leaving, I think too much of him to stand for a single instant in his way when an opportunity for his advancement offers. If you need him at once of course you can have him, but if possible let him stay over here until the 15th

"Respectfully,

"WRIGHT SMITH, Chief Engineer.

"P. S. I know Mr. Hazelhurst has given him a good recommendation but there is nothing he has said (no matter what) that can over-rate his ability."

There has been considerable comment on the streets relative to the selection of Mr. Pillet over five or six local engineers, any one of whom would have taken the position, it is said, for the amount which will be given the Mobile man. There is also some criticism of Council for what is regarded as unfair treatment of Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Streets, Wharves and Public Improvement department, who was not aware of the decision of the other four members to select Mr. Pillet until the matter was brought up for action Wednesday afternoon. Inasmuch as the city engineering work will be done under the direction of Mr. Moore it is pointed out that he should have been given some consideration in the selection of the engineer. It will be recalled that at the meeting Mr. Moore expressed surprise that Council had gone to Alabama for an engineer when there were several in Wilmington regarded by him as competent who would have taken the position. He stated that he thought preference should be given local men, but said that if the other members of the Council had decided upon the election of an out-of-town man he would not oppose them. Mr. Moore did not remain in the meeting until the vote was taken, having to leave for his home on account of illness in his family, which, by the way, is the reason that he was not aware until then that Mr. Pillet was being considered by other members of Council, as he was not able to attend the several conferences held a few days preceding. Mr. Moore stated at a meeting some days ago that he was ready for an engineer, needed one and begged Council to give him one, stating that he did not care who it was, just so he was a good engineer. It is understood that the other four members of Council took this to mean that whatever they did in the matter of selecting an engineer would meet with the hearty approval of Mr. Moore, who only wanted an engineer. On the other hand, it is understood that Mr. Moore never entertained any thought that the Council would seek an engineer outside of the applicants, without at least letting him know of their intention, especially as it had been pretty much generally understood that a local man would receive the position. The matter is understood to have been talked of among members of the Council at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

COMES FOR HENRY MELTON.

Sheriff Best Will Take Negro Back to Duplin for Trial.

Sheriff D. J. Best, of Duplin, arrived yesterday to take back to that county for trial Henry Melton, colored, who was arrested here some days ago on a warrant charging him with the murder of another negro near Wallace last Thursday night a week ago. Sheriff Best will leave this morning with his prisoner. Superior Court convenes in that county July 3rd at which time he will be tried.

Melton struck the other negro, whose name has not been learned here, with a stick because he had refused to pay 10 cents which he had purchased from the former. It was evident that he did not intend to deal a fatal blow and as soon as he realized that the wound inflicted was indeed serious, Melton went to Wallace for a physician, with whom he returned to the scene of the altercation. After making an examination, the physician stated to Melton that the wounded negro could not possibly recover. This was enough said to Melton, who left immediately for Wilmington, arriving according to his statement, during the same night of the trouble.

PROLONGED DROUGHT BROKEN

Refreshing Rains in This Section Last Night—Destructive Storms at Raleigh and Durham Last Night.

Welcome rain!

It came last night in thunder showers from the east, not a cloudburst, nor even a very heavy fall, but quite a sufficiency to wet the ground and lay the dust, to give some little life to parched vegetation and to relieve suffering humanity. It came up from the ocean and for a time between 7 and 8 o'clock, it appeared as if there would be a considerable squall, but this soon passed over and later in the night there came a refreshing fall and passing thunder clouds that give even brighter promise for today. At the beach there was considerable hail with the first appearance of the cloud, but later the rain came and a decided fall of the temperature. The Weather Bureau promises unsettled weather again for today with fair on Sunday. The rain was badly needed and it came as a great relief. There was some display of electricity in the city and at Winter Park Gardens the lighting system was cut out for the night, but there was no serious damage.

The following Associated Press dispatch was received last night from Raleigh:

Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—There was a terrific electrical storm in Raleigh and surrounding country tonight about 8 o'clock. The wind reached a velocity of 42 miles an hour. A rain storm followed, the total fall being .59 inches. The Weather Bureau reports this as the hottest day of the year here, the temperature reaching 92.5 degrees. Part of the city was left in darkness, the electric wires being put out-of-commission. Many trees were blown down.

St. Agnes Hospital, colored, was struck by lightning and caught fire, much damage being done. All patients were brought out in safety.

There were 18 patients and getting these out of the building with least possible injury was with the greatest difficulty. This was accomplished quite successfully. Fortunately the rain had considerably spent itself before the fire. The damage to the building is around $500. Wind and trees falling in several sections of the city did great damage to wires and put the street cars out of commission for two hours.

Storm at Durham.

Durham, N. C., May 26.—The most terrific wind and thunderstorm of many years passed over this section this afternoon about 6:30 o'clock. For nearly two weeks there has been no rain hereabouts except a little shower Wednesday morning for about 15 minutes. The cloud began to gather about 5 o'clock this afternoon and everybody thought that there would be a heavy rain. A few minutes after 6 o'clock great gusts of wind swooped down over the entire city bringing great clouds of dust. Following close upon this a terrible thunderstorm broke upon this vicinity. People caught on the streets were almost stifled by the dust, and dazzling streaks of lightning pierced the air all about them. Tonight wires are down all over the city, and all the street cars are out of commission, no cars have been in operation since the storm broke over the city.

Trees have either been blown down or limbs broken off in almost every section, and all over the business part of the city signs have been blown down. A fire broke out in the eastern section of the city about 8 o'clock which was supposedly ignited by lightning.

Tobacco Factory Wrecked.

Durham, N. C., May 26.—Possibly $200,000 damage was caused here tonight by a severe storm that wrecked the Venable Tobacco factory, which had 50,000 pounds of stored tobacco, blew down every trolley wire, set fire and destroyed the Clatham Hosiery Company's knitting mills, burned out half the telephone system and wrecked street cars. Several persons were burned by crossed wires. All theatres were closed, as the city was left in total darkness.

SUMMER UNIFORMS ORDERED.

Mr. Fuchs Given Contract for Furnishing Police and Firemen.

Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, has awarded to Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs, the well known clothier, the contract for furnishing 72 Summer uniforms, more or less, for the police and fire departments, with helmets for the police and caps for the firemen. Mr. Fuchs submitted the lone bid received. The firemen's uniforms are to be made of 14-oz. Oswego Serge, at $12.50 a suit, and caps at $1.50 a piece, while the police uniforms will be the same weight material and will cost $12.85 a suit, and the helmets $3 a piece. It is late in the season to be placing orders for Summer uniforms and already the police and firemen have felt very keenly the need of lighter clothing, therefore Mr. Fuchs will rush the order with all possible speed.

LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING

is the way Miss Alta Abel, of West Baden, Ind., summed up her existence after having sought in vain for health. She writes, "I was a complete wreck—always tired, worn out and nervous. I had to spend about one-third of my time in bed, and my life was not worth living.

Vinol, your delicious cod liver and iron tonic, was recommended, and I can truly say it has done me more good than all the medicine I ever took in my life. That nervous and tired feeling is all gone. I have gained in health, flesh and strength, until I feel like another person." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

What Vinol did for Miss Abel, we know it will do for every nervous, run-down, over-worked, tired, thin and discouraged woman in this vicinity.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.—Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

RAILROAD GRADING FORCES

Three Squads Met Yesterday Afternoon Between Bolivia and Southport—Big Undertaking All But Completed—Outlook.

News was received here last night that the three grading forces at work on the Wilmington Brunswick & Southern Railroad between Bolivia and Southport met late yesterday afternoon amid shouts and hurrahs. This practically completes the work of grading this important piece of railroad with the exception of the approaches to Southport proper and some filling in here and there, which will be all finished in a few days.

This has been a great undertaking but President Z. W. Whitehead, of this city, has successfully met and mastered every obstacle and succeeded where many others have failed. He was naturally in a rather happy frame of mind last night when news reached him of the practical completion of the grading for his new railroad between Wilmington and Southport. Laying the rails between Bolivia and Southport is now being pushed most energetically and will be rushed for all it is worth until the last spike is driven.

The new railroad, which is of standard gauge and well constructed, penetrates one of the finest timber and naval stores, as well as agricultural and trucking sections in the whole South and with railroad facilities predictions are freely made that it will soon be the garden spot of Eastern North Carolina.

THE AIRDOME

Will Probably Open This Evening—Splendid Orchestra.

The new Airdome will probably give its first performance tonight, beginning 7:30. The front is not yet completed, but everything necessary for the proper projection of pictures will be finished this afternon. The programme will consist of several pictures, illustrated song and entertaining selections by the orchestra. The latest model motion picture machines have been installed in order to show the pictures as flickerless and steady as the latest patents will permit, and the subjects selected for the opening day are varied and new—all intensely interesting.

The orchestra, already assembled, consists of seven different instruments, the largest orchestra in Wilmington theatres, under the direction of Prof. Herman Kahn, who comes here from the "Eintrach," of Newark, N. J. He is a young musician of exceptional ability, and has a musical library of many classic selections, all the brilliant overtures and, of course, the latest popular publications. This promises for those who stay in town during the Summer evenings plenty of entertainment and amusement. Probably the best feature that could be had in connection with the motion pictures, is their exhibition in the open air—where it is as cool as any place, and any breeze stirring can be felt; that is what an Airdome is, and Mr. Peiffer has incorporated with it all the conveniences of a modern theatre. Regular theatre chairs are being used and the floor space is sufficiently large to avoid crowding, making the Airdome a most welcome Summer amusement resort.

The opening hour throughout the season will be 7:30 and a continuous exhibition will be given until 11 or later.

CAROLINA BEACH.

What Editor Wade Harris Says of Big Developmental Enterprise.

With his mind's eye ever turning Wilmingtonward and with a good word ever at the point of his pen for Wilmington and Wilmington people, Editor Wade Harris, of the Charlotte Chronicle, thus writes of the latest big developmental enterprise for Carolina Beach:

"It is interesting information The Chronicle prints about the proposed development of Carolina Beach, by a company of outside and home capitalists. Especially is it interesting to know that the beach is to be made a Winter resort. Carolina Beach is almost within sight of Smith's Island, where palm trees grow and which marks the northern limit of sub-tropical vegetation. The climate there throughout the Winter months is not as temperate as that of Florida, but is more invigorating. Furthermore, Carolina Beach is the prettiest stretch of seashore along the Atlantic coast. The sand is whiter, the beach more level the ocean bluer and the waves more caressing than at any spot between the Jersey Highlands and the Gulf. So broad and firm is the beach that it affords an excellent driveway for several miles. We knew that Carolina Beach's day would come some time soon and that Capt. John W. Harper would live to see his fondest hopes realized. He is a fine fellow and he is going to have a great resort."

BUDGET ABOUT COMPLETE

Will Aggregate Practically the Same As Last Year—Will be Adopted Monday Afternoon—The Mosquitos.

The budget for the ensuing fiscal year was again considered by the City Council in executive session for two hours yesterday afternoon, this being the second meeting held during the week for this purpose. Announcement was made that at a special meeting Monday afternoon the budget will be finally considered and adopted, until which time that which has been practically settled upon is subject to change. While but very little is known of the budget, it is understood that the Council estimates that the total expense of running the city government the next fiscal year will be about the same as the present fiscal year, when it required about $226,000.

There are increases in some departments and decreases in others, but the total will remain about the same, it is said. The fire department will require about the same, while there will be a slight increase in the police department, which operated on about $35,000 the present year. It is believed among members of the Council that the city will have more money to its credit at the end of the ensuing fiscal year than it has at present, according to the estimated revenue and expenses for the year. It is understood that the Council proposes to either repair or build a new fire station at Fourth and Princess streets and either repair the Sixth and Castle street station or build a handsome and modern structure at Fifth and Castle and move the firemen there. The appropriation for this will not be included in the budget. While the members of the Council are understood to have pretty well fixed in their minds the salaries which will be paid the various city officials, it is said that action has not and will not be taken until Monday afternoon.

The meeting yesterday afternoon was called to order at 4:10 P. M. by Mayor Smith who presided with all members in attendance; also City Attorney Herbert McClammy, Capt. Thos. D. Meares, City Clerk and Treasurer; ex-Alderman S. J. Ellis, Dr. Edward J. Wood and Mr. J. S. Ramos. Dr Wood, of the County Board of Health, stated that he and Councilman B C. Moore, appointed as a committee at a recent joint meeting of the two bodies, were ready to make their report relative to a consolidation of the city and county health offices, and requested that another joint meeting of the two bodies be called to receive the reports. It was decided to call the meeting for 4 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Dr. Wood addressed the board also on the mosquito campaign, it having been stated that the work undertaken some weeks ago to exterminate the pest had been stopped on acount of the fact that some of the men engaged in the drainage work were needed in some other department. He spoke of the importance of continuing the work until July 1st and then presented ex-Alderman Ellis, under whose supervision the drainage of the several ponds of water has been done. Mr. Ellis told something of what has already been done in the way of draining ponds of water in different parts of the city and declared that he was deeply interested in the work and desired to see it continue. Dr. Wood, who is responsible for the splendid campaign against the mosquito, spoke very highly of the work of Mr. Ellis, stating that it had been approved most heartily by Capt. Walter G. MacRae and Dr. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health. He said that Mr. Ellis deserves much credit for the work. Practically all the work to be done now is to oil the sewer traps and inspect the premises of the citizens throughout the city. Members of the Council stated that the work would be continued; that there never was any other intention, and the fact that the men have not been engaged for the past few days was the result of a misunderstanding. The budget then engaged the attention of the Council until after 6 o'clock.

BUILD IN FAYETTEVILLE.

Ex-Sheriff Stedman's Bank to Have New Home in Upper Cape Fear.

The many Wilmington friends of ex-Sheriff Frank H. Stedman, formerly of this city, and a number of Wilmington stockholders in the institution, of which he is president, will be interested and pleased to know that the Cumberland Savings & Trust Co., of Fayetteville, is soon to build a new and modern home for its occupancy in the upper Cape Fear City. The Savings & Trust Co., has purchased the old Peoples' National Bang building, until lately used as a postoffice, on Hay street, and this is now being torn away to make place for a new and handsome structure for the bank. The institution has grown rapidly of late and new and larger quarters are desirable, hence the decision of the directors to build.

HOW TO GET FAT.

Use Samose, Says Druggist J. Hicks Bunting and Put on Good Flesh.

Th almost universal interest in physical culture is the best evidence that can be offered as to the need of a simple and scientific method of making thin people fat, increasing strength and restoring health.

Athletics, when carried to an extreme, often result in straining the vital organs. How much better it would be for the average person to regain health, strength and flesh by using Samose. This flesh forming food is assimilated as soon as it enters the stomach; it helps the organs to assimilate the food and extract the flesh forming elements; it builds up the muscles and rounds out the limbs into shapely plumpness.

Samose has been so successful in making thin people fat and restoring the weak and run down to strength and health that J. Hicks Bunting, the popular druggist, sells it under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not benefit.

EXPECTS BIG SEASON.

Already Many Reservations Have Been Made at Seashore Hotel.

If less than one week the formal opening of Wrightsville Beach for the season of 1911 will take place. It is confidently expected that the season will be the best in the history of the resort, surpassing even last season which holds the record for crowds in a single Summer. There will not be as many notable gatherings, on the beach this year as last but judging from the reservations already made at the hotels the crowds will even be larger.

Mr. Edgar L. Hinton, the popular manager of the Seashore Hotel, known far and wide as one of the leading seashore resort hotels in the country, has already received more reservations than ever before known at this season of the year. He has turned down a number of big conventions of associations which desired to meet at the Seashore Hotel because he felt that it would be impossible for him to give accommodations, so great is the regular Summer business expected to be done. People from a distance will begin arriving next week, probably in greater numbers than usual for so early in the season, and from then until the close in the Fall the beach hotels are expected to have at all times practically all the guests they can accommodate. The fame of Wrightsville Beach as a Summer resort has grown from year to year and now persons from all parts of the country spend the Summer there. They rarely or never fail to return season after season and they bring with them friends and relatives for a delightful sojourn on the beach.

TO ENTERTAIN VETERANS.

Committee Appointed to Raise Funds for State Reunion Here.

Capt. James I. Metts, commander of the Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Veterans, yesterday appointed a committee to raise funds to entertain the North Carolina Division, U. C. V., which will hold its annual reunion here this year.

It will be recalled that the invitation from Wilmington to meet here, which was extended the veterans by Capt. Metts at the last reunion at Norfolk, was accepted, but no definite time was arranged. The appointing of the Finance Committee yesterday was the first step toward the extensive arrangements to be made to provide suitable entertainment for the large body of veterans, who will come from all parts of the State.

The committee named by Capt. Metts is as follows: Messrs. H. C. McQueen, chairman; Walker Taylor, W. H. Sprunt, J. G. L. Cieschen and L. Leon. The committee expects the people to respond readily in order to raise the necessary $2,000, which will be required to carry out the reunion with success and give the veterans a warm welcome to Wilmington. The local camp of veterans feel assured that the people of the city will provide the necessary funds.

While no definite date for the reunion has been set the arrangements will be in progress from now until the time and an extensive programme will be perfected. It is probable that the reunion will be held in August. It is the purpose of the committee for naming the time, to make it suitable for veterans in the country, in order that they may be able to leave their farms long enough to attend. Other committees will be appointed as soon as the necessary funds are raised and then the matter of perfecting the programme and other arrangements will be considered.

WILMINGTON POSTMASTERSHIP.

Mr. W. S. Clayton is Being Strongly Endorsed for the Position.

That there is to be a lively fight for the Wilmington postoffice when the matter of appointment comes up in Washington next February or a little earlier, is evidenced by the fact that on yesterday it was definitely announced that Mr. W. S. Clayton would be in the race for the appointment against Mr. Thos. E. Wallace, who will stand for another term. Mr. Clayton has for the past six or eight years been the assistant deputy collector of customs at the port of Wilmington under Mr. B. F. Keith and is receiving high endorsements from the business public to the larger place which he aspires to fill. He is a most clever and capable official in the public service in which he is now engaged and will make a strong race for the appointment. He has been identified with Wilmington and its affairs for more than a decade and enjoys the confidence, respect and esteem of everyone with whom he is acquainted. Mr. Wallace, who has served Wilmington most acceptably the past term as postmaster, is also receiving from his friends and the business people the highest endorsements for re-appointment and the race will likely be quite interesting.

While a matter with which Democrats have nothing to do, the public generally is interested in this big institution and the race will be watched with interest.

The prizes will be presented to the winners by the chairman of the Board of Education at the commencement exercises of the High School at the Academy of Music next Friday night. The Junior Order stands out prominently in favor of education, which is always encouraged in every way possible. The Council should have the highest commendation of the general public in the interest shown through the offering of the prizes.

BOYS' BRIGADE WON.

Good Shepherd Team Lost Contest Yesterday by Narrow Margin.

Yesterday afternoon the Boys' Brigade and the Good Shepherd Sunday School teams crossed bats for the best and closest game that has been played in the Sunday School league this season. It was only by the smallest margin that the Boys' Brigade won the game in the ninth inning. The feature of the game was the double play made by the Boys' Brigade in the sixth inning. The final score was 4 to 3 in favor of the soldier lads.

The league is proving a success from every standpoint and next year those interested feel that a league can be organized that will take in every denomination and church in the city. Mr. J. B. Huntington, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was on the field and umpired the game for the boys.

THE CITY ENGINEER.

Several Applicants Say They Had Full Consideration by Council.

Several applicants for the position of city engineer yesterday asked the Star to make the statement as coming from them that they had every consideration at the hands of the city council upon their recent selection; that the council desired a man who would give all his time to the duties of the office and who would make a straight salary proposition. Those who asked for this statement say they were not in position to accept the proposition either for the reason that they desired to handle the work on a fee basis or that they were not in position to give their full time to the duties of the office.

Outing at the Beach.

The Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church, Mr. W. M. Cumming, superintendent, enjoyed a delightful outing at Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon as guests of the Tidewater Power Co. The party numbered nearly 250 and went down in four cars in the early afternoon, returning late yesterday evening. The young folks enjoyed the afternoon at gay Lumina and feel deeply grateful to the Tidewater Power Co., for its kindness.

..Theatrical..

At the Bijou.

Yesterday, which was Benefit Day at the Bijou, the management devoting a large part of the proceeds to the worthy work of the Whatsoever Circle of the King's Daughters, was a big success. Quite a tidy amount was turned over to the Circle, while the whopping big crowds had an immense and most joyous amount of entertainment at the popular theatre. Today brings about the usual big week-end bill, and from the list of films to be presented it might seem that the Bijou has held back its best offering of the week for today. One of the feature films today will be "The Carrier Pigeon," and it is one of the most novel films ever offered. "Lucia's Broken Romance," is a film of great beauty, as well as wonderful plot. In vivid intense manner it tells the tale of a pretty Italian street musician, who aspires to reach glittering realms in society and the fate that befalls her. It is powerfully dramatic and at the same time teaches a great lesson.

Grand Theatre.

For today the Grand will present another of those big bills which usually characterize the week end. Last night the big theatre was packed to overflowing, every one enjoyed the show and the big feature is the general coolness which prevails. Great care has been taken to make Grandites comfortable these warm days and nights and a trip to the house will show that the efforts have not been in vain. Today the management offers three of the newest reels out, which contain plenty of comedy and pathos besides being splendid educational features. Mr. Baldwin will sing the best song of the wek, "Lovie Joe," which is one of the season's biggest hits and should be a hit at the Grand today.

WEEK-END DANCE.

Will be Given Tonight at Gay Lumina. Car Schedule.

The young people are reminded that the usual week-end dance at Lumina will be given tonight and this promises to be one of the largest and most successful dances yet given at this popular resort. There will be a good orchestra and everything will be done for the comfort and convenience of those who attend.

Beginning today and on Sunday the half hour schedule on the suburban line will be in effect afternoons after 1 P. M. instead of afternoons at 2:30 P. M., as heretofore. The complete Summer schedule will be put into effect on Saturday, June 3rd. The service this season as usual will be up to a very high standard and nothing is being spared to conserve the every interest of the thousands who will visit Wrightsville during the heated period.

DISCUSS MANUFACTURES.

Business Enterprise Committee Met at Chamber of Commerce.

An interesting meeting of the Manufacturing and Business Enterprise Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, was held yesterday with President Corbett and several members of the Executive Committe of the organization at which members discussed at length preliminary methods for securing new manufactures for Wilmington. Considerable interest is being taken in this feature of the Chamber of Commerce and several enterprises seeking locations in this section will be urged to consider the advantages of the port and railroad facilities of this place. The meeting was in progress for some time and a number of important matters along this line were discussed.

MUCH BUILDING IN CITY.

Number of Permits Recently Issued by the Building Inspector.

There have been a number of building permits issued recently by Building Inspector Chas. Schnibben, who is also chief of the fire department, and in nearly every section of the city some building is being done. Among the permits issued during the past few days are: M. W. T. Farriss, two story brick building, on Front, between Dock and Orange streets, to be used as a bakery; Mr. C. L. Meister, residence, to cost about $1,000; K. C. Sidbury, Esq., residence on Market between Tenth and Eleventh to cost about $3,000; Mr. W. J. Craig permit to remodel his home on Fourth, between Dock and Orange streets.

Death of Little Son.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Hayes will sympathize with them in the death of their four-year-old son, Clarence H. Hayes, Jr., which occurred at the family residence, No. 907 Chesnut street, at 11:15 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of some days. The funeral will be held from the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist Church, and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Trinity Methodist Church.

Tomorrow, 28th inst., Trinity Methodist Church, corner Ninth and Market streets, will have been organized 20 years. Special anniversary services will be held at 11 o'clock A. M. It is hoped that all the members of the church will be present. The pastor, Rev. E. C. Sevierville, Tenn.—"I never did believe in patent medicines," writes Mrs. Martha Hown, of this place, "until I began to take Cardui, and it cured me.

"Cardui saved my life after the doctor had failed to help me. Since taking it, I am stouter and weigh more than I ever did, and look and feel like a new woman.

"For six months before I began taking Cardui I could not do anything, nor hardly sit up. Now I can do all my housework, go where I please and it don't tire me.

"I used to get frightened at anything and would just fall down in a faint, and was so nervous, but now I am better than I have been in twelve months, and the doctor, who is my own brother, says he never thought to see me looking so well."

The benefit to be obtained by taking Cardui is not confined to any one part of the body. The whole female system is benefitted—the whole constitution built up. A pure, vegetable extract, especially adapted for woman's ailments, Cardui is the one remedy that all women should have in the house, and use when needed.

Do Your Cooking in the Cool

A hot kitchen is little better than a prison in summer. But the range is there, so all the cooking and the washing must be done there, too.

What a relief it would be to move the range where you pleased. You can do this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove—cook your dinner out on the porch, if you like. It is the only range that is really portable—that works equally well in any place. There are no connections to be made, as in a gas range; no wiring, as with an electric stove; no sooty flues and ash-filled grates, as with coal or wood.

The long, enameled chimneys carry the heat directly up to saucepans, oven or boiler; you get full value from your fuel, without waste.

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turquoise blue enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.

TURPOILINE

CHEAPER THAN TURPENTINE

It is an odorless mineral product, which possesses great solvent power for paints and varnishes, has the requisite high flash for working and the clean evaporation which leaves the coating in perfect condition.

TURPOILINE makes a free flowing varnish, free from bloom. It flat colors better than turpentine.

TURPOILINE is thorough uniform; you can be assured of receiving the same product all the time.

TURPOILINE costs less and works well.

TURPOILINE is the most satisfactory product on the market for the paint and varnish man.

Try TURPOILINE. One thorough trial will convince you.

COTTON IS STILL DECLINING

Market Closed Steady at Net Loss of Eight to 23 Points—New Crop Positions Failed to Respond—Features.

New York, May 26.—There was a further sharp decline in the price of nearr deliveries in the cotton market today, but in spite of favorable crop advices from several sections of the belt, new crop positions failed to fully respond to the old crop break, and the market closed steady at a net loss of from 8 to 23 points on the old crop, but only 2 or 3 points lower on the later months.

The market opened steady at a decline of 6 points on May, but generally unchanged to four points higher in response to better cables than looked for and ruled pretty steady during the early trading by covering by some of yesterday's sellers, and expectations that leading bulls would give the market support, following the break of the previous day. The bulls, however, seemed to be taking little interest in the market for the moment, the circulation of a few May notices brought out some scattered liquidation of that position, which probably exerted a sympathetic influence on other old crop months, and while the small into-sight movement steadied the market slightly around one o'clock, it weakened again when it was seen that this factor had failed to create any fresh buying of consequence, and reached the lowest point in the late trading. Stop loss orders were uncovered on the decline, which carried July off to 15.50 or 23 points under the closing figures of yesterday, and a little more than $3 per bale under the high figures of the season. May contracts were also weak, selling at 15.35 or 27 points net lower, and August sold off to a net decline of 14 points, but the new crop went only three or four points under the final figures of yesterday, and seemed to be attracting some trade support. Selling may have been partly in the way of evening up accounts for over the holiday next week, and the government's condition report next Friday, but part of it came through so-called bull houses, and while it may have been for trailing accounts, served to create further rumors that the bull campaign was being gradually liquidated.

Receipts today, 7,179 bales, against 16,713 last week, and 9,306 last year. For the week, 45,000 bales, against 65,427 last week, and 56,585 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 3,184 bales, against 2,621 last year and at Houston 183 bales, against 1,064 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points lower. Middling uplands, 15.80; middling gulf, 16.05; sales, 1,000 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed steady.

STRENGTH IN STOCK MARKET

Speculative Selling Halted and Opening of Trade Brought General Advance—Steel Interests. Features.

New York, May 26.—The underlying strength of the stock market which has been apparent through the week in spite of the unusually severe pressure that was exerted, led to an advance in prices today when the pressure was relaxed. Speculative selling was halted today and the opening of trading brought general advances, which were later extended to a full point or more for the greater part of the active list.

The volume of trading diminished considerably today. Total operations aggregated about 309,000 shares, which is considerably under the recent averages.

Changes for the day in most cases were small, the early gains being cut down before the close. The slackening business was attributed to the uncertainty attending next Monday's Supreme Court developments and the general state of indecision respecting the steel and iron trade.

Steel interests were able to form no definite ideas today of the effect of the reduction in prices. On behalf of some companies it was said that orders for bears were coming in more freely and that consumers who had been out of the market for some time were submitting specifications. It was reported that more definite news as to the situation might be had following a meeting of steel makers early next week.

Advices from abroad intimate that considerable financing of an important character will be taken up in London and Paris following the approaching holidays at those centers. It is understood that some of the proposed banking has to do with American securities and in this connection it is again reported that another output of Harriman issues may soon be announced.

The strength of Atchison may have been a natural outgrowth of the latest Paris despatches, which assert that arrangements for listing the shares of that system on the bourse have virtually been completed. It also was reported that application has been made to list American Telephone and Telegraph in the same market.

The April reports of the Harriman roads showed that the retrenchment policy which was adopted generally early in the Spring, had been pursued effectively by these companies. Gross earnings of each road fell off about $700,000, but decrease in net were reduced by cuts in expenses which amounted to $300,000 for Union Pacific and $539,000 for Southern Pacific.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $2,735,000. United States bonds were unchanged, on call. Total sales for the day, 302,700 shares.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Decline Caused by Unfavorable Crop Reports—Crop Believed to be Doing Well—Carolinas Still Need Rain—Features.

New York, May 26.—Cotton has declined, owing to favorable crop reports, dullness of spot markets at home and abroad and heavy liquidation of old crop months, partly, it is supposed by leading bulls and partly by the "traders" who have been shaken out in some cases by the catching of stop orders. On the whole, the crop is believed by many to be doing well although it is supposed to be 2 to 3 weeks late and the Carolinas and Oklahoma still need rain. Texas, it is supposed, would also be the better for rain.

The acreage is said to be five or six per cent. larger than that of last year, and the use of fertilizer, larger than ever before, while the big price rating for cotton makes it certain that the cultivation will be more than usually careful. Liverpool's spot sales have been very small. No decided improvement has taken place in the cotton goods business and the late decline in the stock market and the "cuts" in steel are naturally not considered very good augurers. Curtailment of production of cotton goods is still a factor not to be ignored. Spot prices here and at the South have later declined. Yet many look upon the lower prices established during the week as merely temporary. They think the facts of supply and demand make it plain that sooner or later a situation so acute as to attract world-wide attention will inevitably arise before the world's stocks can be really replenished and that the logical outcome will be a severe advance in the old crop months as well as in spot cotton.

For the spinners, takings continued large, despite the curtailment in this country. They show that trade abroad is good, whatever may be the condition of business in the United States. Besides the world's stocks are being reduced with far greater rapidity than a year ago. The New York certificated stock is 35,000 bales smaller than on May 1, and nearly 150,000 bales less than that of a year ago. In fact, there are those who think that, regardless of the curtailment of production of goods in this country, the statistical position could hardly be stronger, particularly as American spinners in many cases are supposed to be carrying very small supplies of the raw material. It is also believed that the retail stocks of cotton goods in many of the big towns and cities of this country are small. Under the circumstances, big crops of cotton are badly needed.

The weather will decide whether it is to be raised, although it is conceded that the large acreage alone does not make this a certainty.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 26. — Peril from deficient moisture and from sizzling temperature threatening the wheat crop southwest kept speculators today in a bullish mood. Closing prices were firm at last night's level to ⅝ above. The end of the day left corn ⅝ to ¾c. up and oats at an advance of ¼@¾ to ⅞@1c. In provisions the outcome varied from 12½ gain to 2½ decline.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only, 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

sole aim and object the welfare and prosperity of the union."

To this the President of the chamber replied:

"If you do so, the Nation will reward you; if you do not, it will call you strictly to account."

Those present remained standing while the oath was administered. When the oath was administered. When this was completed, many vivas and cheers rang throughout the chamber. The diplomatic corps was present.

During the trip of Mr. de LaBarra in an open carriage from the National palace to the Chamber of Deputies and the return, infantrymen with full equipment, including knapsacks and blankets, stood in the sun and restrained the crowds along the route.

The cheering was greatest on the return trip. The presidential carriage had been fairly covered with roses and orchids and the vivas were prolonged and enthusiastic. The President carried his silk hat in his hand, bowing right and left. The President remained in the palace all afternoon, holding a reception.

The city was quiet throughout the day. A few street urchins, apparently not recognizing the change of regime, had been effected, tried to renew the demonstration of the last two days; but they were kindly and firmly suppressed by the police. Apparently the capital has passed the crisis with the greatest credit to itself and has given the lie to those who prophecied that there could be no change of President without subsequent anarchy.

Madero Now Resigns.

Juarez, May 26.—Francisco I. Madero, Jr., in a manifesto to the people tonight resigned the position of provisional president conferred upon him by a convention of revolutionists at San Luis Polosi, last October, and called on all Mexicans to support Senor de LaBarra as the sole executive of Mexico.

Senor Madero placed his forces at the disposal of Senor de LaBarra and paid tribute to the character of the new executive pointing out that he might well be regarded as "one of us". The manifesto was Senor Madero's last act as provisional president.

Having relinquished the post, which he believed did not permit him to enter American territory, he accepted tonight an invitation of El Paso officials to attend a public reception in his honor next Monday following which he probably will leave for Mexico City. The manifesto in part follows:

"Fellow Citizens:—When by the San Luis Polosi plan of last October I invited you to take up arms to reconquer our liberties and political rights, you all concurred in my call, and in six months, by your heroic efforts you have overthrown the dictatorial regime which for about 35 years has oppressed our fatherland.

"The triumph has been complete and in succession will be justice equally for the rich and the poor; for the powerful and for the humble. Liberty will spread its broad wings to all Mexicans and united fraternally, we all will work for the aggrandizement of our country."

Madero then expresses the hope that all will follow in his efforts in re-establishing quickly peace and tranquility "to the end that very soon the Mexican people will enjoy the well being which proportionately is due under the new regime of government inaugurated today with President de LaBarra, who has received so high an honored a post solely with the idea of serving his country as an intermediary between the despotic government of Gen. Diaz and the eminently popular government which will result from the next elections."

Madero then expresses the hope that his country men will aid de LaBarra in the work of re-establishing order and tranquility in Mexico.

"To those who for so many years have been victims of tyranny, and who fear some trick from their old oppressors," Gen. Madero continues, "I say that they should fear nothing. The people already have shown their omnipotence, and, before I resigned the provisional presidency, I agreed with Senor de LaBarra on the necessary means for assuring the satisfaction of the National aspirations as to which the next general election will respect the popular will.

"Among these means are to make the governors of the States resign and to substitute citizens who constitute a guaranty for the regime which has been inaugurated.

"These governors who have been designated by the people will be a guaranty of our future liberty.

"Mexicans, when I invited you to take up arms, I said that you would be invincible in war and magnanimous in victory. You have fulfilled faithfully my prognostication, earning the admiration of the whole world. Now it is recommended that, just as you have known how to grasp your arms in the defense of your rights you should continue in the capacity of the national guards, placing yourselves in the lofty position which guards order and constitutes guaranty for society and for the new regime of things.

"Retiring to private life in the capacity of a simple citizen, I will continue, however, to be considered as chief of the present revolutionary party and will collaborate with the government of Senor de LaBarra, placing at his services, by energies.

"The one thing that I ask of all my fellow citizens is that they co-operate with me and with the present government so that united we all may dedicate ourselves to work for the aggrandizement and glory of our fatherland; effective suffrage, no re-election."

Senor Madero tonight declared he regretted the announcement of Senor de LaBarra that he would not be a candidate in the next elections. Asked whether he would be a candidate, he declared he would if the convention of his party named him.

Senor Madero tonight sent messages to Mexico City urging that a date early in September be chosen for holding general elections.

Mexico City, May 26.—According to these advices, Diaz boarded the Ypirange, a Hamburg-American boat, tonight. The Ypirange is due to sail south to Coalzacoalcos tomorrow. She will return to Vera Cruz and sail for Europe Wednesday.

Diaz's Train Attacked.

Juarez, Mex., May 26.—A message to Francisco I. Madero late tonight from Senor Cardan, at Jalapa, Mex., stated that the train bearing President Diaz to Vera Cruz was attacked at Tecpechualce. No further details were given.

WHITEVILLE AFFAIRS.

Drought Continues Serious—Streams Drying Up—Personal Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 26.—Miss Mary C. Pitts, who had charge of the music department of the Whiteville High School, left at noon today for her home near Richmond, Va.

The County Commissioners have ordered Jailor Spivey to investigate and report at next meeting of the board the cost of building a fence around the jail.

On order of the Commissioners, screen doors and windws have been placed in buildings on the County Home farm, and they will also be recovered and put in perfect repair.

The drought is getting serious, and farmers are fearful lest they will practically miss making a cotton crop. On an average over the county there is not even one-twentieth of a stand of cotton. Old people who have kept a record of the weather, say this is the longest dry spell in 35 years. Corn is not hurting as yet, but late planting, like cotton, is not coming up. It is now thought the tobacco crop in this section will be cut short fully two-thirds, if not more. Oats are a practical failure, and farmers will not much more than get their seed back. But in spite of the drought strawberries are holding out remarkably well. Several carloads are shipped every day and they bring from $1.50 to $2 per crate. It costs 62 cents to gather and market a crate of berries, so even this leaves a fair profit for the residue of the crop.

Mr. Nathan, of Wilmington, who is running a moving picture and vaudeville show at Vineland this week, is meeting with fairly good success, most nights having between 300 and 400 people. He goes from here to Marion, S. C.

While at such a low stage, our streams are being practically cleaned of fish which are caught in great quantities. It is said but little attention is paid to the new fish law and fishermen are using nets, seins and every other device to rake in catches. The banks of the river and creeks are literally lined with men and boys fishing. You cannot hire a darkey at any price now, as they can make more and easier money fishing.

TO CHOSE "WHITE HOPE."

Twenty-Three Pugilists Entered the Tournament—Details.

New York, May 26.—Of 23 heavyweights from all over the country who entered in the "white hope" tournament at the National Sporting Club tonight, 11 men tried to show their fitness to challenge Jack Johnson for the world's championship. Johnson watched the bouts and said he was ready to meet all comers.

Al Palzer was uncovered as the "white hope." He is a New Yorker whom Tom O'Rourke, the manager of tonight's tourney has been touting as the one man fit to meet Jeffries' conqueror.

In the finals he won from Sailor White, of Newark, in a four round bout, according to the decision of the judges, who were allowed under amateur rules.

Palzer was a bit slow, but his redeeming features were his gameness and dangerous left.

It did not look dangerous to Johnson. He said he was ready to meet anybody, even Langford, who would put up the money, and that he was ready to cover any amount at a moment's notice. He said he was ready to fight at any time and hoped that the next man he met would be worthy of the fight for the championship.

AMERICAN COTTON USERS.

Asked to Stop Use of Product During Whit Week.

Manchester, England, May 26.—The master spinners' committee today decided to request the users of American cotton to stop using the product during the whole of Whit week and also to ask that a vote be taken on the question of an organized short time working period at the mills until the end of the present cotton season. The committee is of the opinion that such action alone will save the cotton trade from disaster.

Boston, Mass., May 26.—Many of the New England cotton mills will be idle next week in continuation of a general curtailment policy which is expected to be effective at intervals during the Summer. In addition to many Fall River mills which have been curtailing for weeks, the 17 mills of the Amoskeah Manufacturing Company at Manchester, N. H., employing 15,500 operatives; the mills of the York Corporation, of Saco, Me., employing 2,500, and the Everett Mills, of Lawrence, Mass., 1,800 will go on a short time movement next week.

It is the plan of practically all of the cotton mills in northern New England to shut down for four weeks during the Summer.

KILLED BY MOTOR CYCLE.

Mrs. Mary Parmele Victim in New York Yesterday.

New York, May 26.— Mrs. Mary Parmele, aged 68, authoress and historian, was run down and killed tonight by a motor cycle at Sixth avenue and Forty-ninth street, within a block of her home. William Herrman, rider of the machine, was paroled to await the action of an inquest. Mrs. Parmele's skull was fractured and she died before medical aid reached her.

Among Mrs. Parmele's writings in recent years have been many philosophical articles and stories appearing in magazines. She had produced a dozen or more books, chief of which were short histories of European countries.

Quitman, Ga., May 26.—With bullet wounds in the face and back and with the face crushed in, the body of Mrs. David Sapp was found today in a sink hole a quarter of a mile from her home. She had been missing since Monday. When his wife failed to return Monday night, Sapp called on the police.

JUDD'S SPEECH SENSATIONAL.

Advises Nation to Drop Philippines—Investigate Conditions.

Nashville, Tenn., May 26.—Judge John W. Judd, who was sent to Porto Rico to investigate the laws and conditions in the islands by the War Department, made a sensational speech before the Tennessee Bar Association today in which he urged that this nation drop the Philippines and beware of the Monroe Doctrine as it is now understood.

A prepared report on "Porto Rico and the Porto Ricans" was to have been read to the convention by Judge Judd but he stated that he could not read it, as the authorities at Washington had asked him not to give it to the public, asserting it would cause embarrassing diplomatic relations with other countries.

Judge Judd expressed the opinion that if the Monroe Doctrine was adhered to as construed by President Roosevelt it would eventually bring the United States into trouble not dreamed of today.

FIREMEN DEMAND INCREASE.

May Strike on Southern Before Middle of Next Week.

Washington, D. C., May 26.—"Unless our demand for an increase of 20 per cent. in wages is granted, there will be a strike of all firemen employed by the Southern Railway before the middle of next week," said Vice-President H. O. Teat, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, tonight, after another day of ineffectual conferences between President Finley, of the Southern, and representatives of the firemen.

Following the refusal of the firemen to agree to President Finley's proposition to submit the wage question to a board of mediation, this matter was put aside temporarily, and rules against many of which the firemen complain, were considered without conclusion. The conferences will continue tomorrow.

Motor Speedway, Indianapolis, Ind., May 26.—Thirty-four cars qualified today in the elimination speed trials for the 500-mile automobile race to be held on Memorial Day. Two cars withdrew, while ten are still to be tried. Special qualification tests await these ten cars on Monday. It now seems certain that there will be more than 40 starters in the big race.
